Need skilled trades workers?
Concerned about attrition?

Pre-screened, reliable apprentices are ready to work today!

We understand the value of human capital and will work with you to determine your workforce needs.

Take the work out of hiring

SkillSource does all of the background work for you.

We recruit and select potential candidates based on your specifications. All candidates undergo a detailed screening process, including reference checks, skills identification, safety awareness and communication.

You can be confident our employees are skilled and highly qualified with the drive and dedication to make them a valuable asset to your organization.

We prepare a detailed profile of each pre-qualified candidate for your review.

Finding the right fit is easy

Our professional staff will work with you to identify the requirements for each job placement and match you to pre-screened candidates based on your specifications. You interview the candidates and make your selection - or we can do it for you. It's that easy!
